The swans escaped a bit. Despite furiously shouting and throwing chisels at them, they would not come back. I can only offer you an alternative of similar value. I can personally stuff a big fish with feathers and freeze it for you? Is that enough? I am so sorry.

I will certainly sell it to you for the said price. But you would have to dispose of all the sleeves that I have left round there. There are sleeves everywhere, anywhere you look there are sleeves.

you got a deal, don't worry about the sleeves {whatever they are} now about the rusty key, you have to take 500 steps from where you are, spin around backwards and say ravan is the best;)

take a blimp to canada, and i'll meet you there:laugh:

no problem, it will take me a little longer to get there, as i am travelling by camel:woohoo:

if i was to dig a hole and you to build a tower which would win could you build a tower taller than i could dig a hole:cheer:

wooooooooooooo the mystery of the rusty key continues

ravan:P

Re:you guys have gotta see this!

I can build a tower whilst you dig a hole within the tower.

but that doesn't answer the question, oh i have a slight problem, i will be little late getting to canada, i seem to have lost my camel, but the good news is i found a turtle:laugh:

oh yeah, the rusty key is actually 3 keys i one, oh now thats mysterious;)

as i look overhead me, i see white clouds, red sky, flying unicorns chasing dragons, it's a shame to leave this fine place, but the lure of atlantis draws me.

i shall see you in 2 days and 1 half moon, when the red river of clouds runs with the white crystal of my ivory tower:silly:

now people of consolemad is this poetry or is this poetry
